HOTEL MEN AFTER NEW STEAMER HIRE

Japanese Bonifaces Pass Resolution Against Emigration

A meeting of the Japanese Hotel Keepers' Union was held at the Christian club on Kukul street last Friday afternoon, at which the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Japanese hotel keepers of Honolulu, having interest in the protection of the Territory of Hawaii, and pending the decision upon the school question which originated at San Francisco, disapprove the departure of emigrants from here to the mainland and would not assist, either directly or indirectly in securing immigrant passengers for the tramp steamers.

Signed by U. Kobayashi, president; K. Hagi, vice president; K. Hamanura, secretary; K. Kawasaki, treasurer; M. Yamashiro, K. Nagata, K. Inohi, M. Komaya, I. Matsuda, I. Imataka and M. Tsuchiyama, directors.

The action taken by the hotel keepers, who are as a general rule mainly interested in shipping Japanese from here to the Coast, is not as spontaneous as it might seem at first blush. As a matter of fact it is intended mainly as a move against the steamship scheme which Leonard & Rich, Ito & Geo. Muirhead have advertised in Japanese papers, regarding which the Bulletin yesterday gave the particulars.

It is reported that Ueda, the Japanese who seems to be the man-of-all-work of the combination, went around to all the Japanese hotel keepers and offered them a certain bonus per head for each Japanese passenger whom they might ship in the ship's boats. However, it appears that the figure was not any larger than the take-off received by the hotel keepers from other quarters for similar services, and as all attempts to get the hotel to raise its figure failed, the disappointed bonifaces revenged themselves as stated above.

MUSICAL TREAT TONIGHT AT YOUNG

There will be music at the Young hotel this evening that in its excellence will more than satisfy those who attend. The occasion will be the Buchly recital which has been so much talked of by music lovers throughout the city, and looked forward to with expectations set at their highest tension.

Mr. Buchly will render a few selections this evening that are seldom attempted by musical artists except those endowed with a rare gift of interpretation. He has played here before and needs no introduction, and will fully come up to the expectations that may be formed.

Mrs. Mackall and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck are firmly established in their lines of entertainment, and will fully come up to the expectations that may be formed.

Honolulu is very fortunate in having in its confines such a thorough artist as Mr. Buchly has proved himself to be, and he is to be congratulated on securing the assistance and support of these two charming lady entertainers.

Eight-fifteen is given as the hour of commencing and carriages may be ordered for 9:45.

FINE STOCK ON NEVADAN

The American-Hawaiian steamer Nevada arrived this morning from San Francisco, bringing 133 sacks of mail for this city. She has a cargo of about 1600 tons of general merchandise for this city in which there is nothing out of the ordinary. On her deck were 33 head of fine horses and mules. Two of the best of the former were consigned to Dr. Grossman, of this city and have been shipped from Chicago. One is a handsome gray driving horse and the other a black pacer, who is said to be very speedy and certainly looks the part.

There were a number of fine hogs, for breeding purposes, on board, consigned to A. W. Carter, and some unusually good specimens of mules for Schuman & Co. The Nevada is tied up at the Bishop wharf, where she will discharge her cargo, then taking the place of the Californian at the Railroad dock, to load with sugar for the Crockett refinery.

ADMIRAL BECKLEY HAS OCEAN LICENSE

The following letter in regard to the license of Admiral Beckley to act as master may prove interesting: Department of Commerce and Labor, Steamboat-Inspection Service, Office of Local Inspectors, San Francisco, Cal., April 6, 1906.

Dear Admiral Beckley:—Your kind letter of March 32th received, and I may say that your rush of business there will not far exceed ours here since returning from your charming islands, and still more charming people.

I understand Captain Bolles' and Mr. Bulger's interpretation of the text and scope of your license as "Master Pacific Ocean Coastwise," confers on you the authority to act as such master on the Pacific Coast from Straits of Magellan to Behring Straits, and the Atlantic Coast of that ocean as well; also, the coasts and waters of the Hawaiian Islands; and, to navigate between the United States Mainland and these islands—the latter being included in the Coastwise Navigation of the United States.

The text of the majority of masters' licenses renewed at Honolulu by the local inspectors, San Francisco District, reads: "Pacific Ocean Coastwise Hawaiian Islands," thereby defining the authority of the holders as being to navigate the coasts and waters of those islands. The text of your license, and one other, however, reads "Pacific Ocean Coastwise," without limitation. A few are for "Oceans," the holders being entitled to same by the terms of licenses previously obtained in that grade.

Will be glad to see your debutant self again. When you are here, you can take up with Captain Bolles and Mr. Bulger the main subject herein.

Yours sincerely,
THOMAS R. CRAGIE

TAKES $500 AND HAS DISAPPEARED

Karl Mett, Bookkeeper Of Bishop & Co., Is Missing

"Mett took in $500. He gave a receipt for it but did not pass it through the books and has now disappeared."

This statement was made by Bishop & Co. when queries were made regarding the reported shortage of Karl Mett, for many years a trusted employee.

The shortage in the accounts of Karl Mett, one of the oldest and most trusted employees of the firm of Bishop & Co. was discovered yesterday, when Mett failed to appear for duty. The police were notified yesterday afternoon and have been making quiet inquiries as to Mett's whereabouts, but up to the time of going to press had failed to locate him.

Before the Alameda sailed this morning she was thoroughly searched, as it was thought that Mett might try to leave the Territory on her, but no sign of him was found. It is thought possible that he had gone to Hawaii on the Kinau when she left yesterday noon, hoping to get a vessel from that port. A wireless has been sent to Hilo to apprehend him if he is in that city.

Mett has always been considered the most accurate bookkeeper in the city, and the news that he was a defaulter created a good deal of interest in business circles. He has been in the employ of the firm of Bishop & Co., acting as a bookkeeper in the bank, for many years and has been entrusted with the most important work which he has always accomplished most faithfully till the present time.

Whether Bishop & Co. will prosecute Mett, in case he is caught, is a question. Word was sent to San Francisco on the Alameda asking the police of that city to detain him, if he should have been hidden on board that vessel when she left this city.

WILL CABLE MONEY TO STARVING CHINESE

At a meeting this morning of the Chinese relief committee which was appointed recently by the Governor to take charge of the collection and disbursement of the funds for the starving Chinese, it was decided to send today the sum of $3500 to the relief agent, Mr. Ide, in Shanghai.

Governor Carter came up to the executive building to attend the meeting of the committee, of which he is chairman. He stated that by tomorrow morning it was probable that the amount now on hand ready to be sent will be considerably increased. The money will be cabled to Mr. Ide at once.

THE CONSISTENCY OF I. L. McCANDLESS

Does Same Thing He Blames Governor For Doing

It all depends on whose ox is gored. I. L. McCandless, acting as the champion of the people, contended that a great wrong was being done the public by the exchange of the Lanai lands. One of his principal contentions is that the Lanai lands were under lease and the Government was deriving therefrom $1600 rent annually. If the exchange were made, he said, this sum would be cut off from the revenues of the Government and the taxpayers would have to bear an increased burden of taxation. As related elsewhere in this issue, such has not proved to be the case. But that is another story.

But I. L. McCandless, by the acquisition of Government land that was under lease, has really deprived the Territory of certain rents which it was receiving for the government land under lease. That is what the fellow on the other side says.

Among the records of the Land Office are accounts of two transactions in which McCandless figures in which he obtained grants of Government lands that were at the time of the transaction under lease to T. F. Lansing.

Through Land Patent No. 4581, issued March 25, 1902, by the then Land Commissioner Ed. S. Boyd, McCandless, in consideration of $1 and the exchange of other land, became the possessor of 27.97 acres of Government land at Kaneohe, Waihohe, Keoluapoko. The tract of land of which the 27.97 acres formed a part was then under lease to T. F. Lansing, the lease was to expire July 1, 1908. The entire tract was then bringing in a rental to the Government of $150 per annum. After the transfer of a part of it to McCandless, the rent was reduced to $125, a loss to the Territory of $25 per annum.

On February 12, 1902, Land Patent 4689 was issued to McCandless, by which he acquired another slice out of the tract. This second slice amounted to 33.75 acres, and the consideration was $1 and certain other land in exchange. On the exchange of this second piece of the Waihohe tract, the rent of the remainder was again reduced, this time to $25 per year, cutting off $100 per year rent from the revenues of the Territory. This made a total of $125 per year lost to the taxpayers of Hawaii, according to the McCandless way of reasoning in the Lanai case.

And now McCandless claims that a crime has been committed by the exchange of the Lanai lands, in that the Territory loses the rents derived under the lease.

JUDGE LINDSAY AFTER ANOTHER GUARDIAN

Judge Lindsay is after another guardian with his big stick. R. L. Gilliland is the man now on the carpet. He is the guardian of Amy Apio. Since 1899, it is stated, he has not rendered any accounting of his guardianship. Today Judge Lindsay issued a summary order for Gilliland to file his accounts forthwith. The same order was issued by Judge Gear in 1902 when he was on the bench, but it was disregarded by Gilliland.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES

The damage suit of Makeke Heleluhe and Keolohapua Kahakuaapoi vs. the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company is being tried before a jury in Judge De Bol's court today. The plaintiffs are two old ladies who are suing the street car company for $10,000 damages each for injuries received in a collision with a car last year. The accident happened on January 25, 1906.

THE JOE CLARK CASE

Deputy Attorney General Prosser has filed his brief in the Joe Clark case. The counsel for the defendant claims that the offense with which Clark is charged, that of violating the provisions of his liquor license by selling booze without meals on Sunday, is not triable before the Circuit Court as a criminal offense, but should be rather in the nature of a civil suit for damages. He, therefore, moved to quash the indictment.

Prosser in his brief claims that Act 67 of the laws of 1905, relative to the sale of liquor and the control of liquor licenses, was intended by the Legislature to be penal in nature and the breach of it is subject to penalty and penal prosecution.

The divorce suit of Kam Ah Soong vs. Ho Yun is being tried before Judge Lindsay this afternoon. The plaintiff charges her husband with cruelty.
